THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI BRAHM DUTT): (a) While various contingency plans are made decisions on imports are considered as and when necessary to meet the gap between demand and supply of petroleum products including pertol. While it is possible to augment the production of petrol in the existing refineries to meet the rising demand, provisions are normally made to meet spot situations/maintenance of inventories etc.

(b) Yes, Sir. The automobile policy consciously encourages manufacture of fuel effijcient cars leading to lower consumption of petrol.

(c) During the year 1987-88 about 15600 tonnes of petrol were imported at a cost of Rs. 3.65 crores. Estimates of such expenditure during next year can be made only if and when any import is made.

This amounts to an increase of 14.9 per cent in the ex-storage point price. This has been made in view of the steep rise in the rate of consumption of petrol. This price increase will also help conserve foreign exchange.

(c) The contribution of this price rise in petrol upto 23-1-1988 has been 2.2 per cent of the increase of 9.8 per cent in the Wholesale Price Index, i.e.

0.2156 per cent only of the increase in the WPI. It is expected to curb consumption of petrol and encourage efficient use of petrol besides helping to conserve foreign exchange.
